OUR STORY & LOCATIONS

Who is Umberto?

Umberto is one of eleven children who relocated to New York from Naples, Italy with the desire to achieve the "American Dream".

While his sibling acquired other jobs, Umberto began working in a pizzeria in the middle of Brooklyn, New York. Educating himself on the trade, he move to New Hyde Park, Long Island to open the first Umberto's in 1965. Soon, a few of his brothers followed and they worked together to build a positive reputation for one of a kind taste, a family atmosphere and personal customer service.

Around 1973 it was time to branch out. From New York to South Florida, Umberto's restaurants opened with fantastic reviews and today, the positive reputation continues.

The Umberto's family are very grateful to our valued customers for their support. We will continue to be very proud to serve people from Long Island and South Florida as we have done for so many years.

Thank you for being a strong part of making our dreams come true!
